SURF CRAFT PARTNERS WITH ABC'S Extreme Makeover: Home Edition
TO MAKE LOCAL FAMILY'S DREAM COME TRUE

Long Island, N.Y., August 10, 2010 – ABC's Emmy-winning hit show Extreme Makeover: Home Edition selected the Lutz family of East Setauket as the recipient of a Long Island Extreme Home Makeover. While Ty Pennington and his team were hard at work renovating the home, the Lutz family vacationed in the Hamptons.

When Founder and President of Surf Craft, a local drop-off art program for kids, heard the Lutz family was staying out East, she immediately wanted to get involved. Jodi and her team at Surf Craft volunteered to work together with the Lutz children, including six with Down Syndrome, to create special works of art which will appear in the new season of ABC's Extreme Makeover: Home Edition's 8th season.

"We created a casual setting where the kids were free and unrestricted to explore colors and painting methods allowing them to feel like true artists" said Jefferson.

The Surf Craft team was thrilled to not only help make a difference in the lives of the deserving Lutz family, but to come together with the Long Island community for a great cause.

The Extreme Makeover: Home Edition featuring the Lutz family from East Setauket and their masterpiece is set to air on ABC this Fall.

About Surf Craft

Surf Craft is a two-hour summer drop-off program designed for children ages 4-10 hosted at the hottest places in Montauk this summer including the Montauk Yacht Club, the Surf Lodge, Navy Beach and Sole East. Each Surf Craft session incorporates an enriching theme, arts & crafts, upbeat socialization and a healthy snack. We offer an innovative, organized opportunity for children to engage their fine motor skills while jamming by the beach. For more information, visit www.surfcraftny.com.
